The weekends—a short break in which we do so many things we long await each week. Whether it be an action packed game, a stop at 'Hogan's' or 'G's' for 'a few cool ones' and a game of foosball, stopping at 'the Bell' for a rap and a burrito or just riding around in our cars

... it's doing what we like best.

Teachers, classes, homework and headaches——a school. Nothing until each day we arrive and make it tick. We make things happen, for we are Central.

This is Central,
alias Bessemer Tech.
The house of
tomorrow's leaders of Pueblo, but a
day will come when
our past won't be sufficient.

For some it will mean going on to college or perhaps just getting a job. No matter what, it will probably mean living out on our own. There'll be no one telling us what to do. It'll be our baby. Ah, the good life of serenity and tranquillity.

Peace

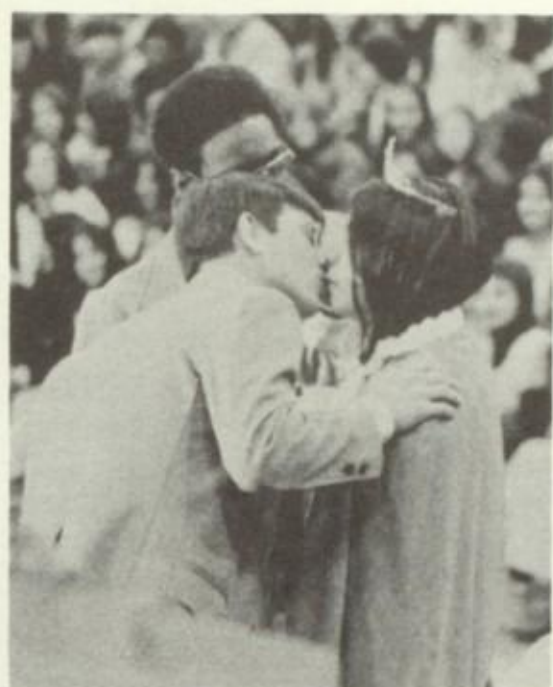

with a little on the side.

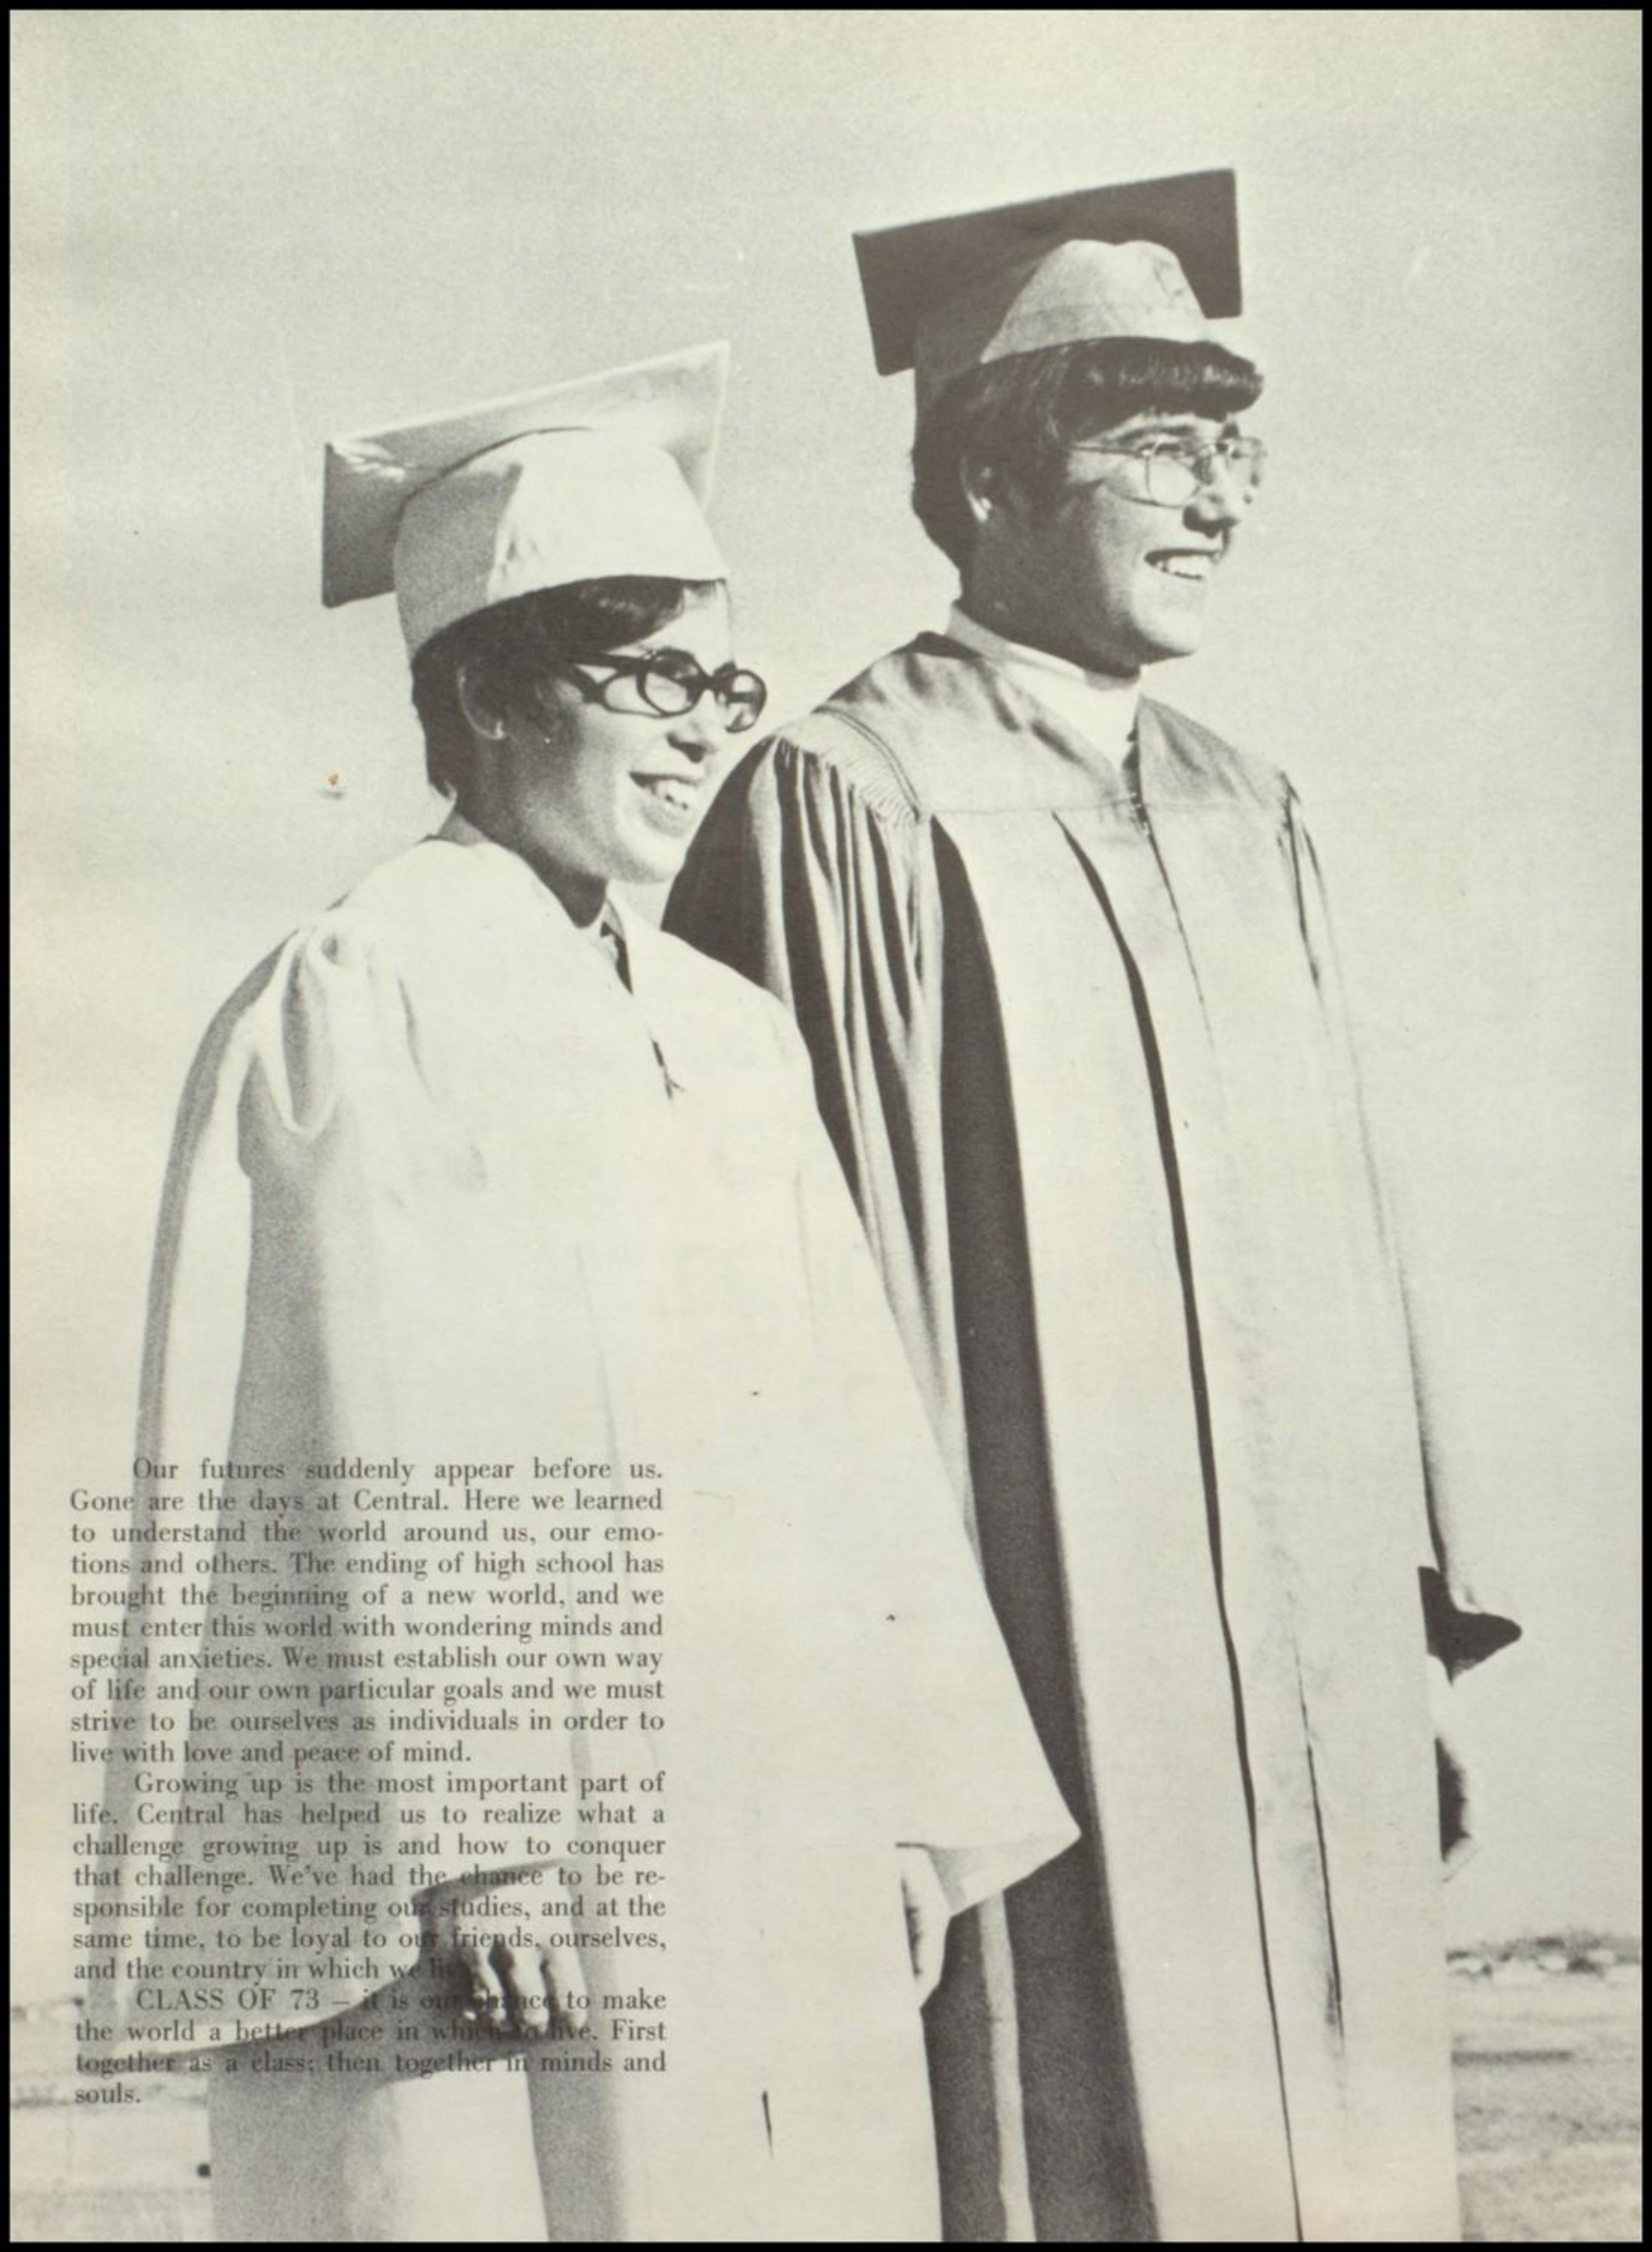

HOMECOMING '72 OCTOBER 6 AND 7

WINTER SPORTS "73 Feb. 21, 22, 23

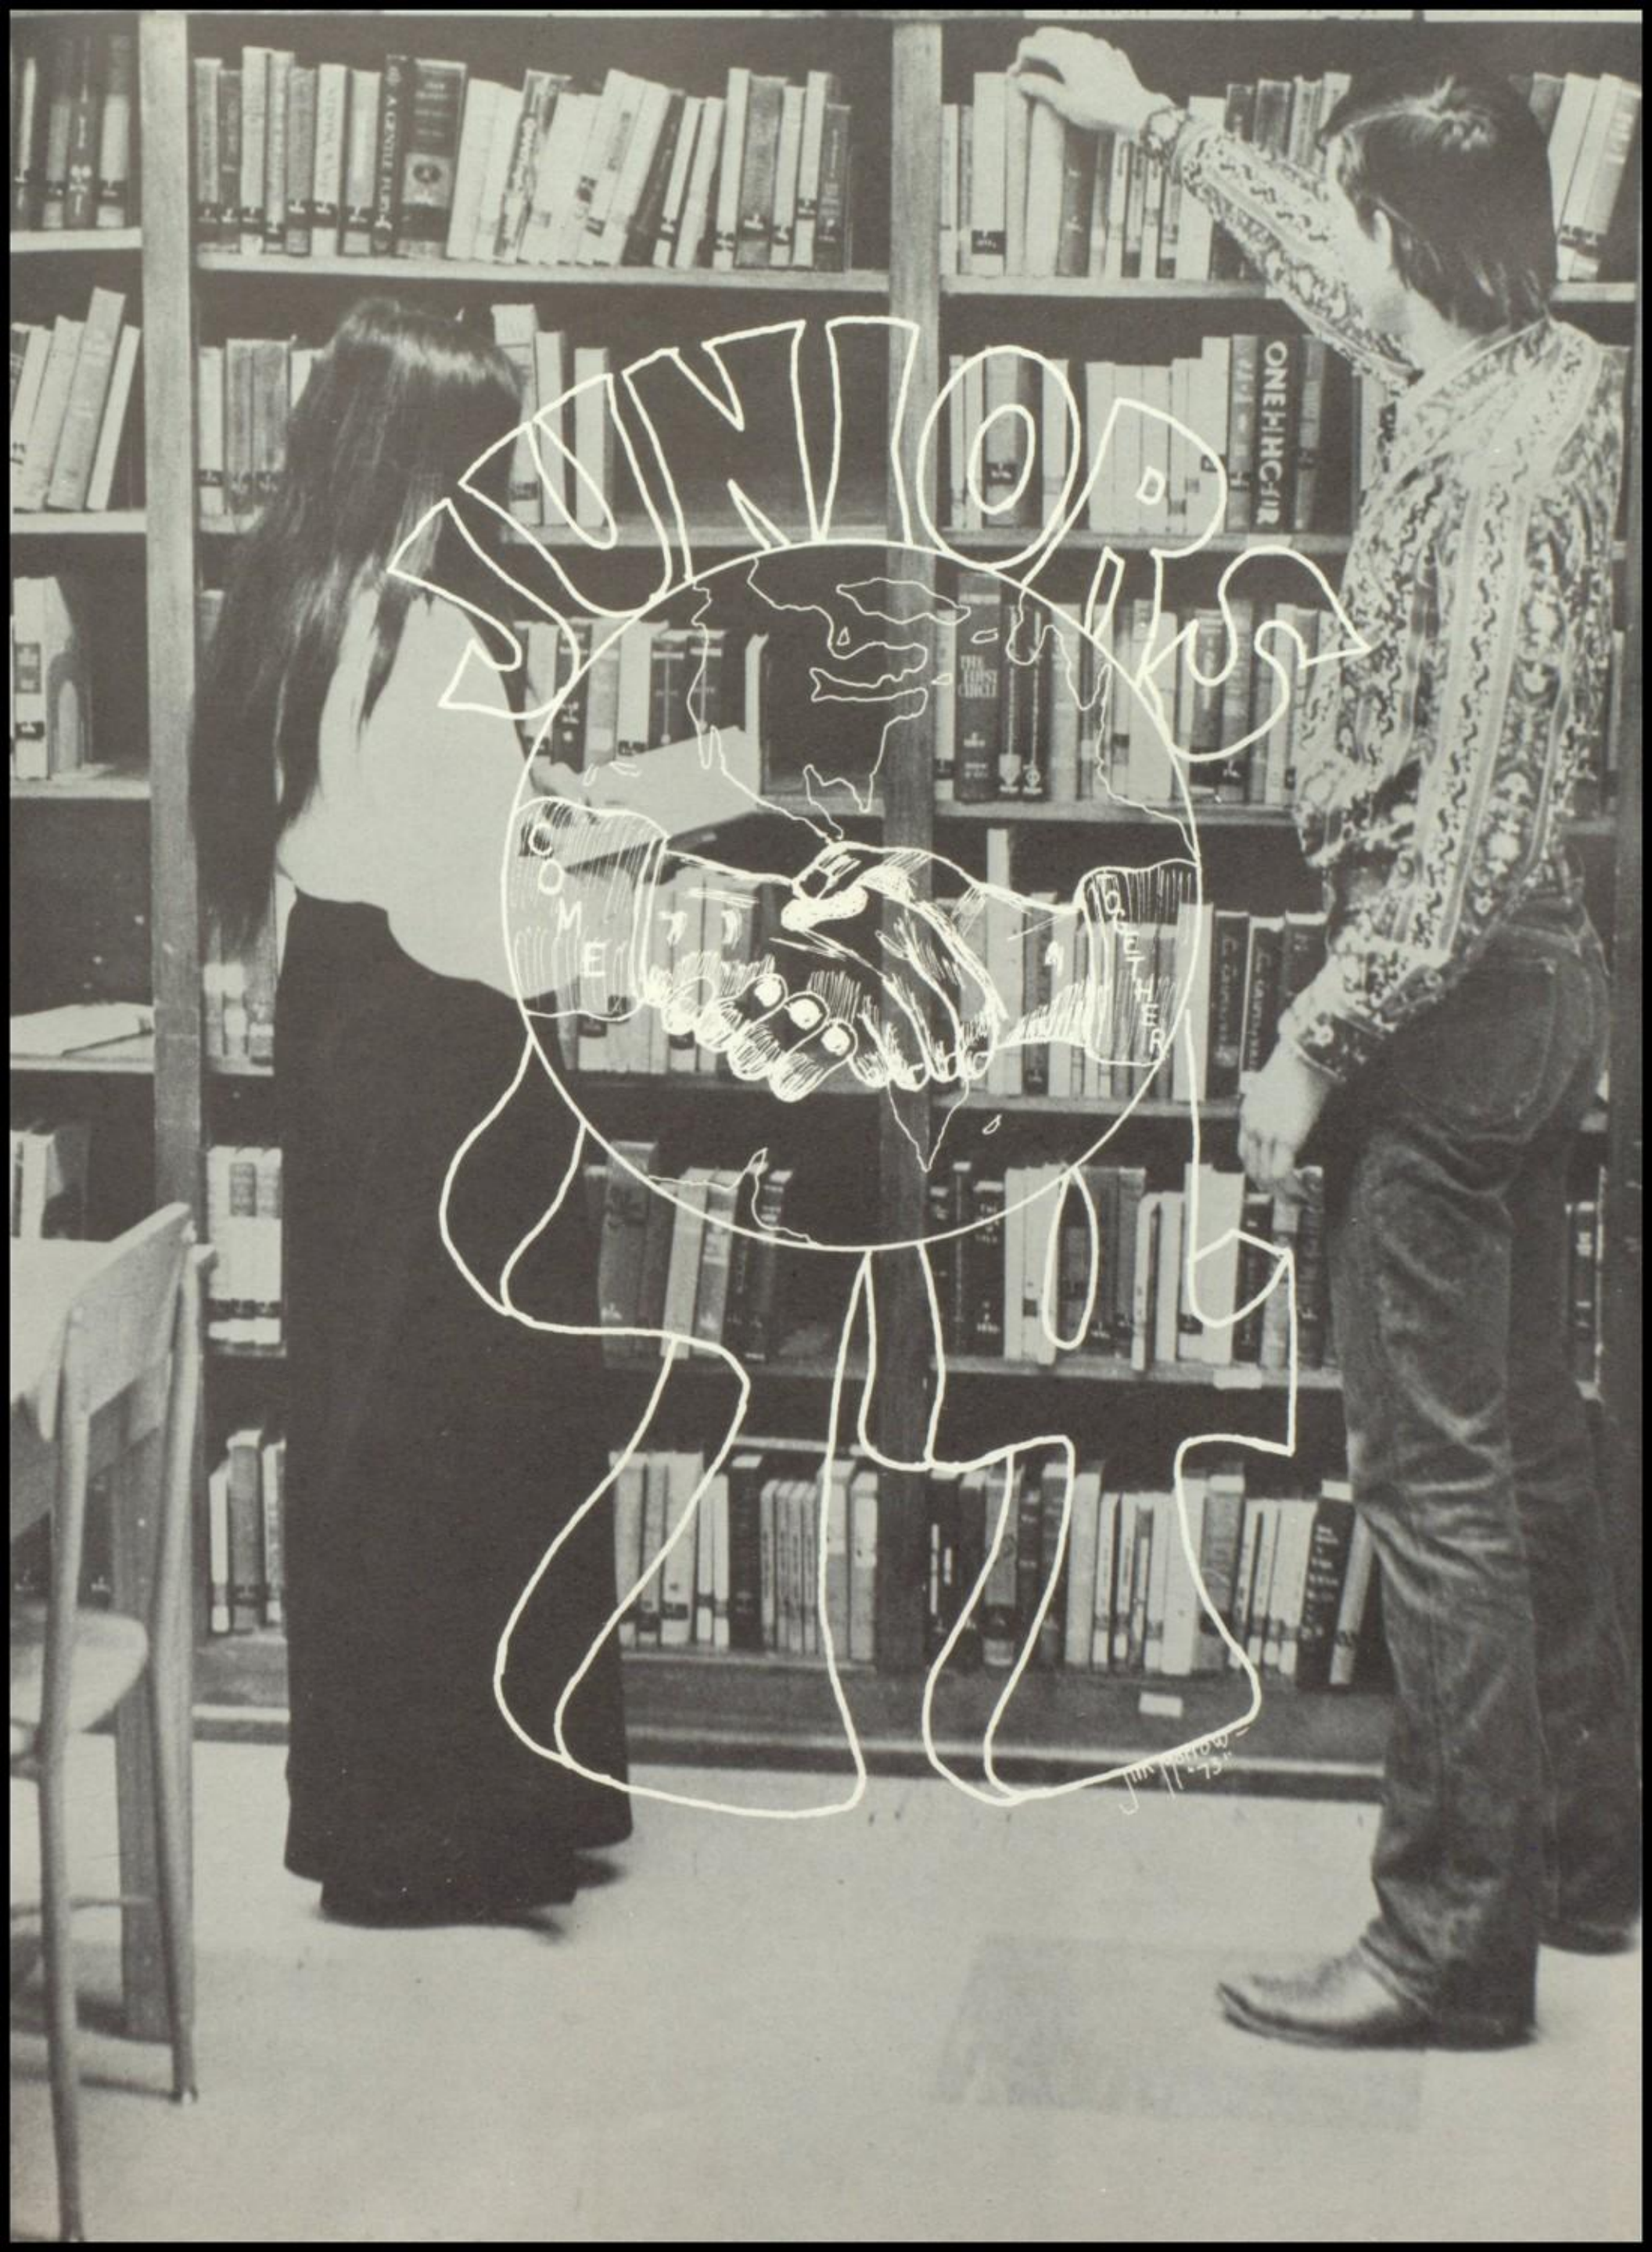

Our futures suddenly appear before us. Gone are the days at Central. Here we learned to understand the world around us, our emotions and others. The ending of high school has brought the beginning of a new world, and we must enter this world with wondering minds and special anxieties. We must establish our own way of life and our own particular goals and we must strive to be ourselves as individuals in order to live with love and peace of mind.

Growing up is the most important part of life. Central has helped us to realize what a challenge growing up is and how to conquer that challenge. We've had the chance to be responsible for completing our studies, and at the same time, to be loyal to our friends, ourselves, and the country in which we live.

CLASS OF 73 — it is our chance to make the world a better place in which to live. First together as a class; then together in minds and souls.

Let him step to the music which he hears

from "Walden"

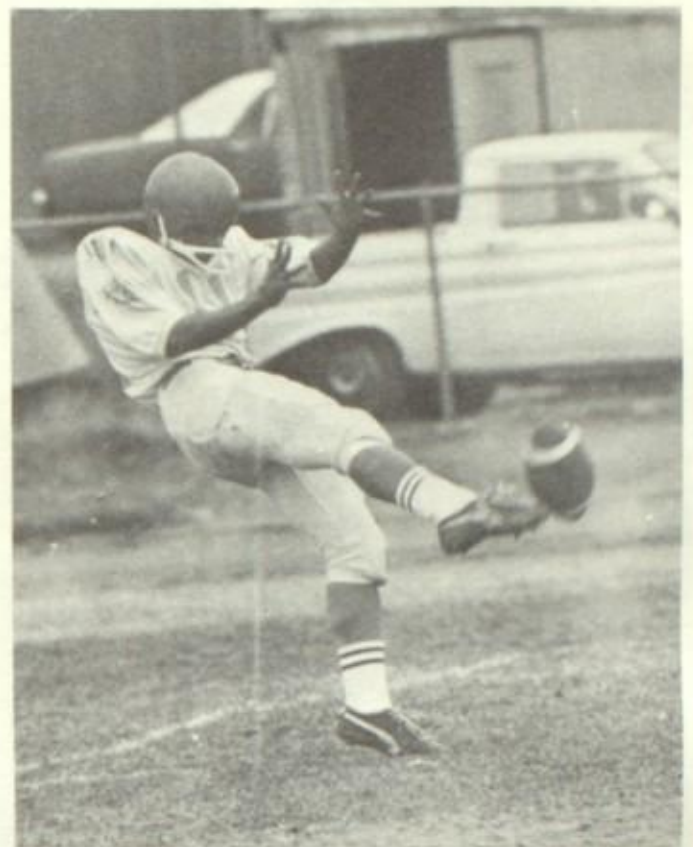

I walked in; a feeling of loneliness ran through me — so many strange faces. They all seem happy. I'm scared . . .

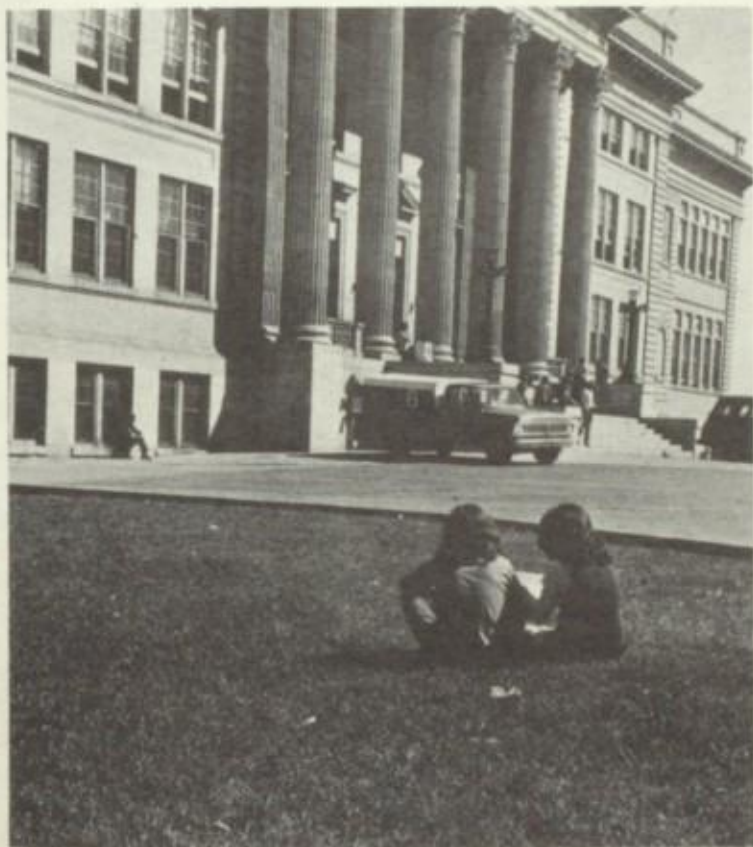

IN THE Beginning

TO THE SUN

The blind boy said:
"Darkness can be your friend
Or enemy. You have to understand it.
If you destroy
Maybe you'll hurt yourself.
I try to know my darkness."
It was the day
An arrow on the chart pointed:
"To the sun."

The blind boy said:
"A boy running on the path tripped me.
When I picked myself up from the bushes
I had lost my sense of the way.
I lost all my cues.
I didn't know where to turn.
I called. Nobody heard.
"The worst," the blind boy said,
"isn't to be blind
But to lose direction."
This was the day.

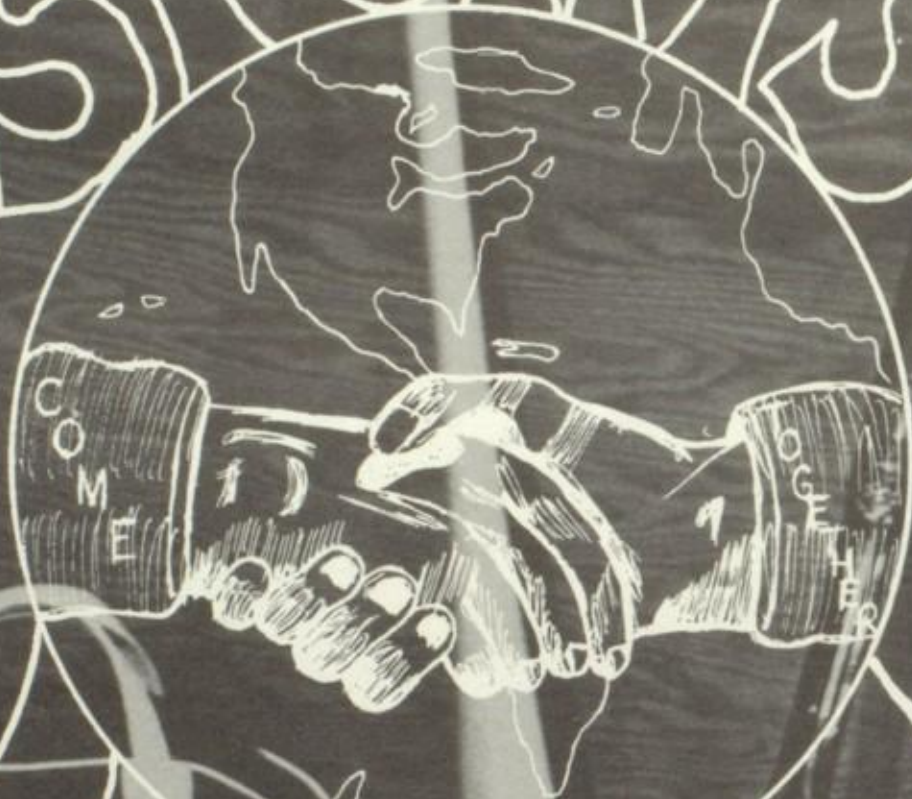

A rocket turned into a planet
A planet loosed from a platform by a man
Fell upward into space
Past gravitation, racing to the sun.

The blind boy said: "You never know
Whether you are going toward good things
or trouble.
Darkness is just like light.
I thought about that a lot.
Nobody can look into the sun."

THE CONQUERING MIND

If you think you are beaten, you are;
If you think you dare not, you don't
If you like to win, but think you can't
It's almost a cinch you won't.

If you think you'll lose, you've lost,
For out in the world you'll find
Success begins with a person's will—
It's all in the state of mind.

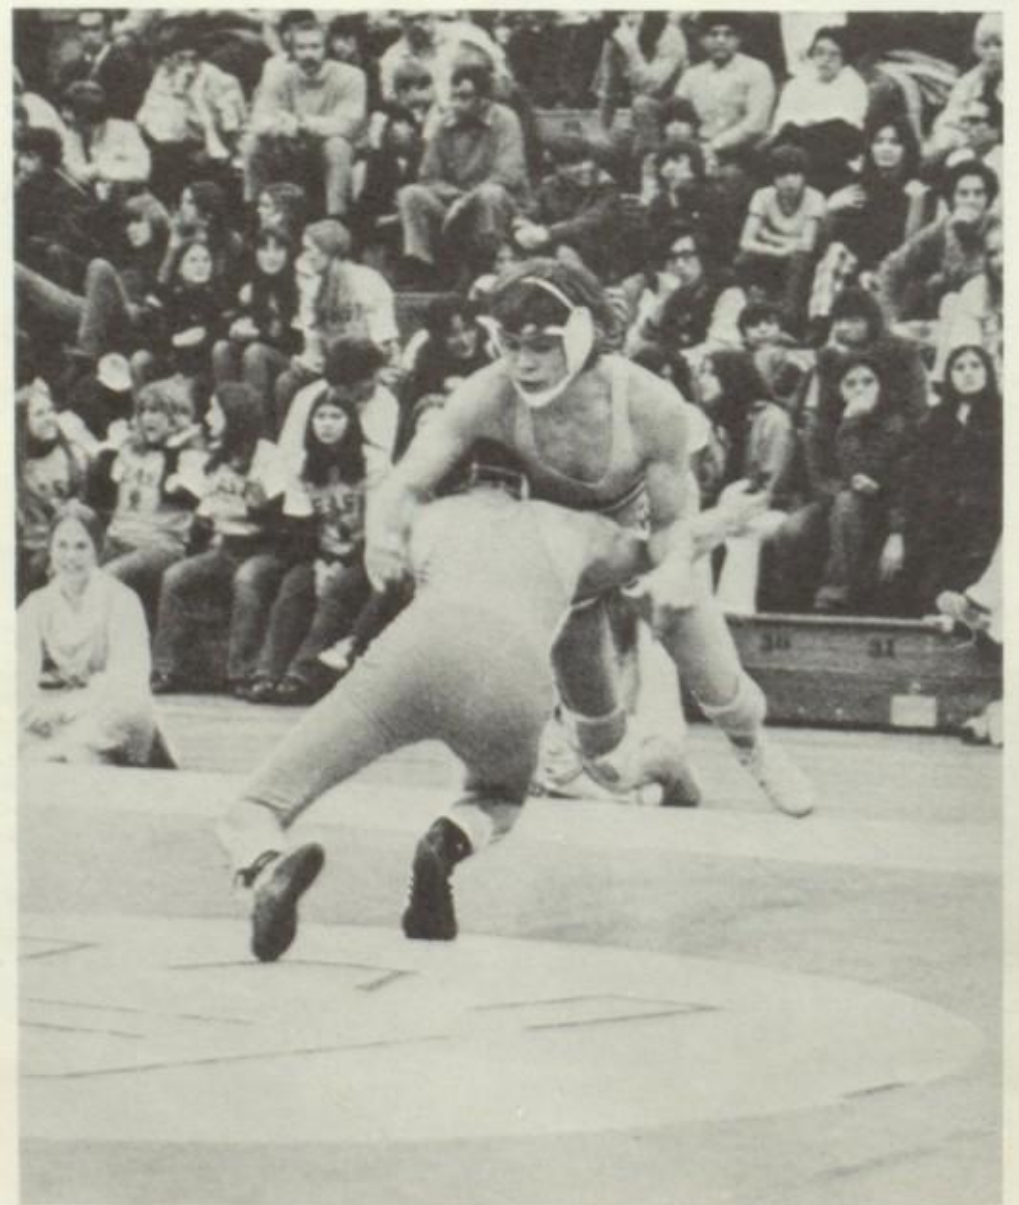

Think big, and your deeds will grow,
Think small and you will fall behind,
Think that you can, and you will;
It's all in the state of mind.

If you think that you are outclassed, you are;
You've got to think big to rise;
You've got to be sure of yourself before
You can ever win a prize.

Life's battles don't always go
To the stronger or faster men.
But sooner or later, the man who wins
Is the fellow who thinks he can.

WILDCAT THANKS

Putting out a 192 page yearbook has its "ups and downs," and my days as an editor were like-wise. Working extra hours on every deadline was a bit more bearable with the GREAT staff which I had to work with. Putting together one good annual with 15 different personalities seems impossible, but I feel I have succeeded.

Besides "the Editors" there are people whom I would like to thank, for without them, my editorship would have been a real job instead of a positive and worthwhile experience.

Thanks for their cooperation go to Mrs. Marybelle Hutchings, Miss Terri Kubick, Mrs. Barbara Hillery and Mrs. Grace Huff, Central Secretaries; Mr. Robert S. Trevithick, Director of Activities; Mr. Mark Shanstrom, John Mark Studio; Yearbook House; Mr. A. Victor Cornelison and Roxann Headley, last, but not least, the student body and faculty.

Special thanks go to the very able Copy and Layout Editor, Rosemary Davenport, our excellent photographers Phil Sterritt, Doug Chinn, John Holden, Bob Bennett and Ken Danti and Mr. John R. Salas, our helpful adviser. Without these people the 1973 WILDCAT would not have been possible.

WILDCAT ACTIVITY BEHIND THE SCENE

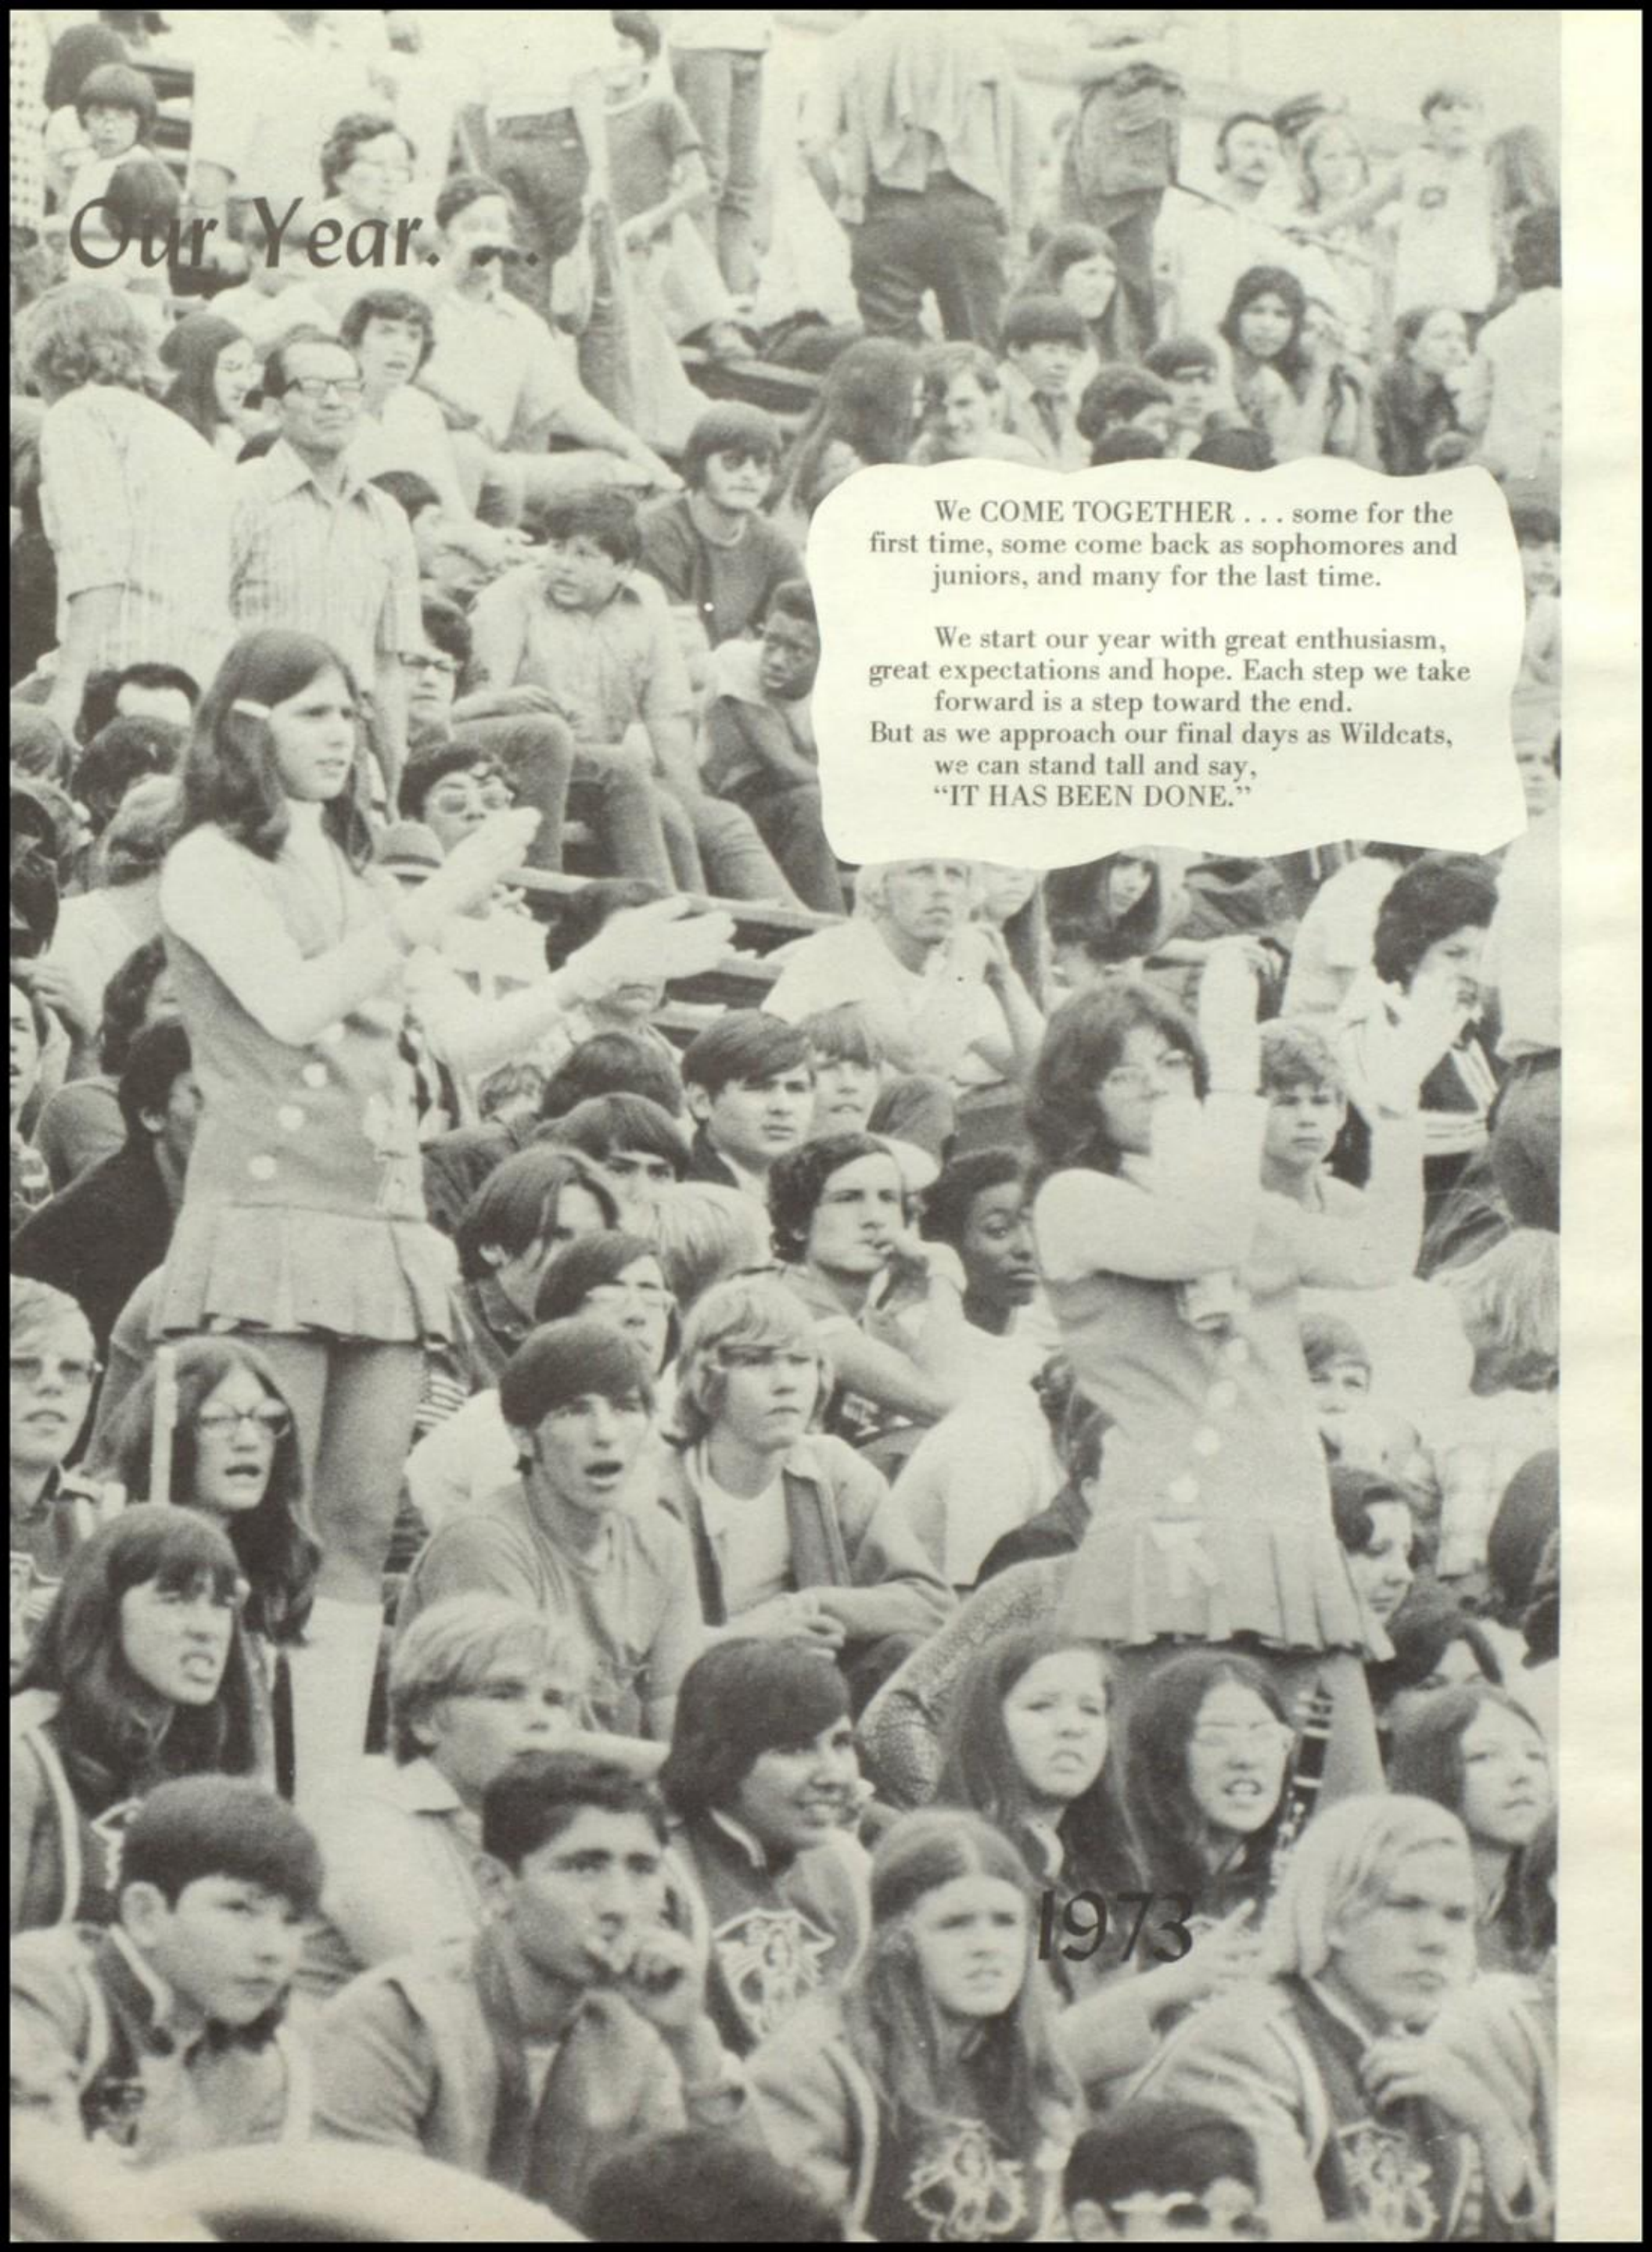

Safe within the confines of our cage
we become proud and secure in the steps of those before us.

And in this pride, time beckons that
we ban our bars,
to climb a ladder all our own.

by Rosemary Davenport

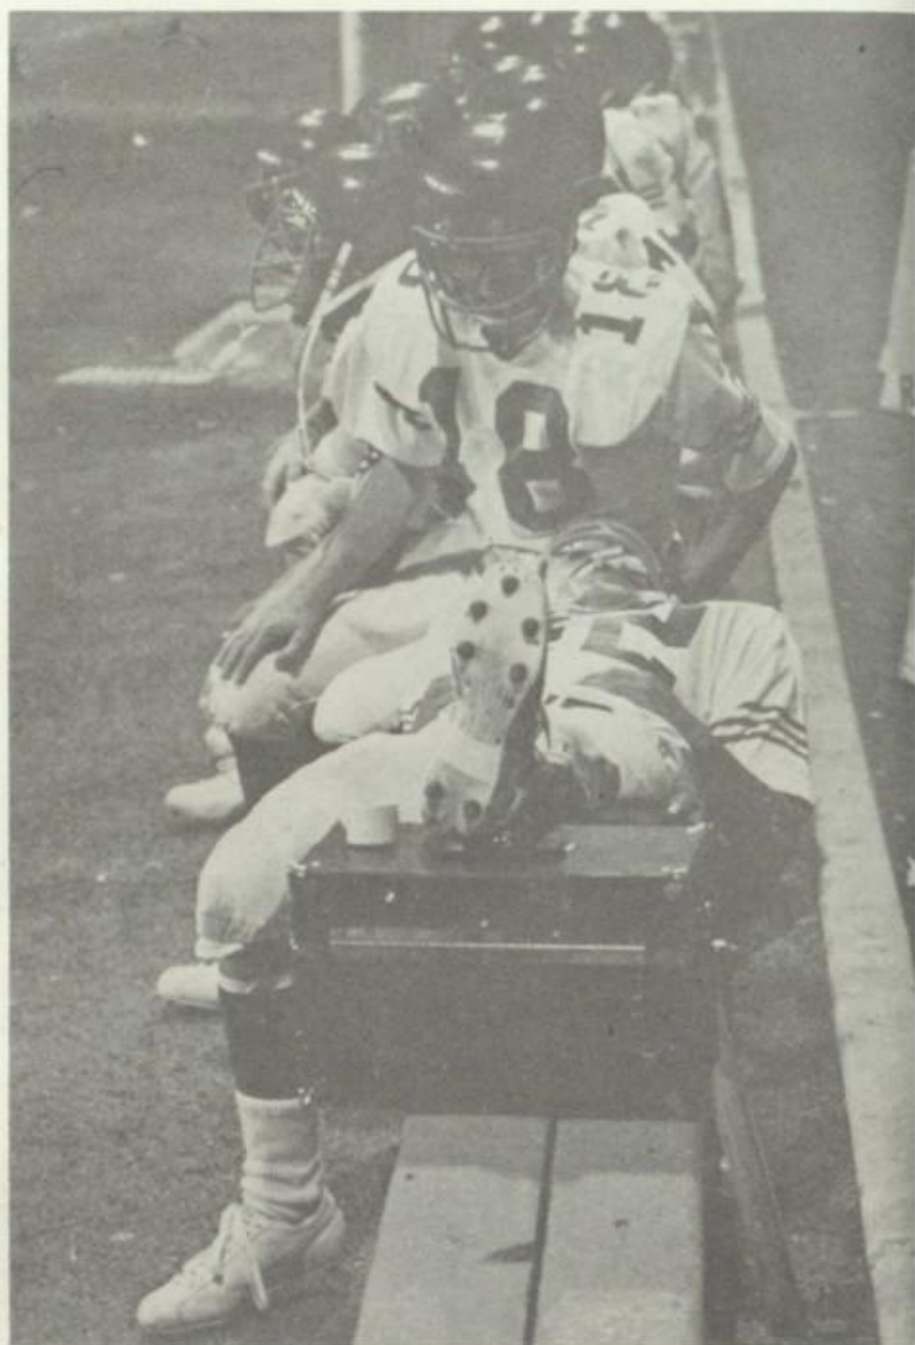

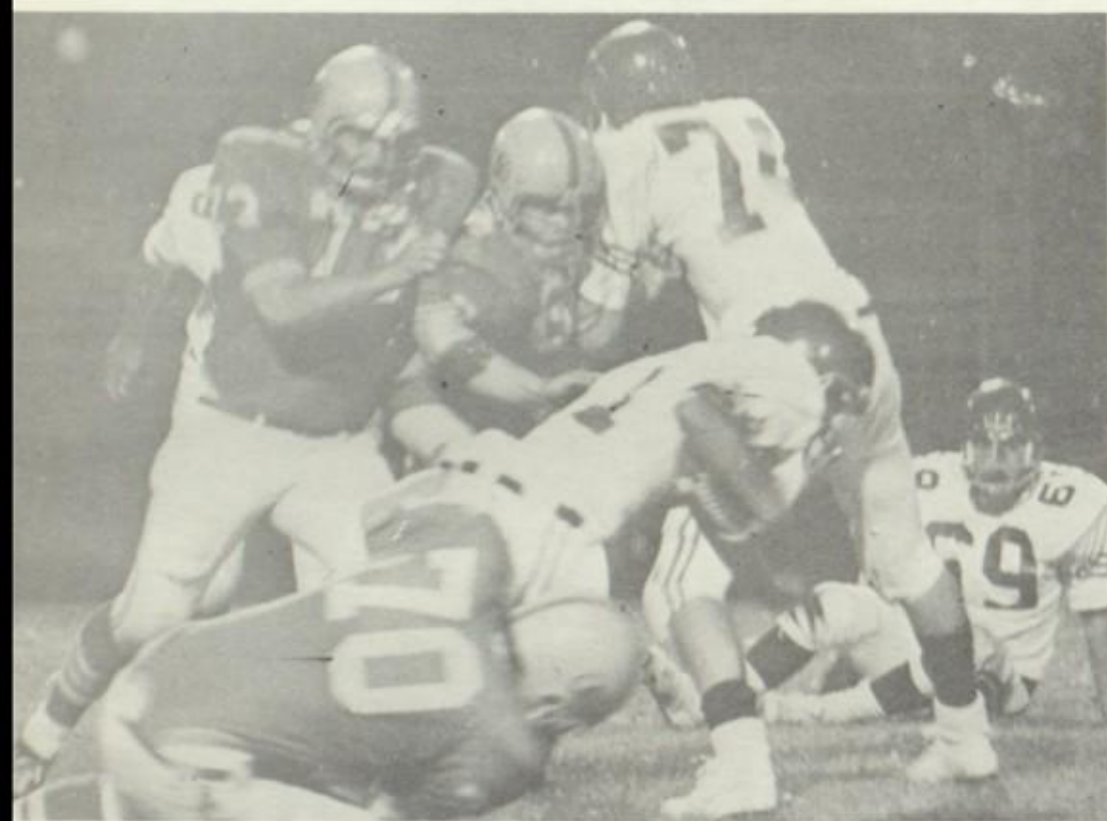

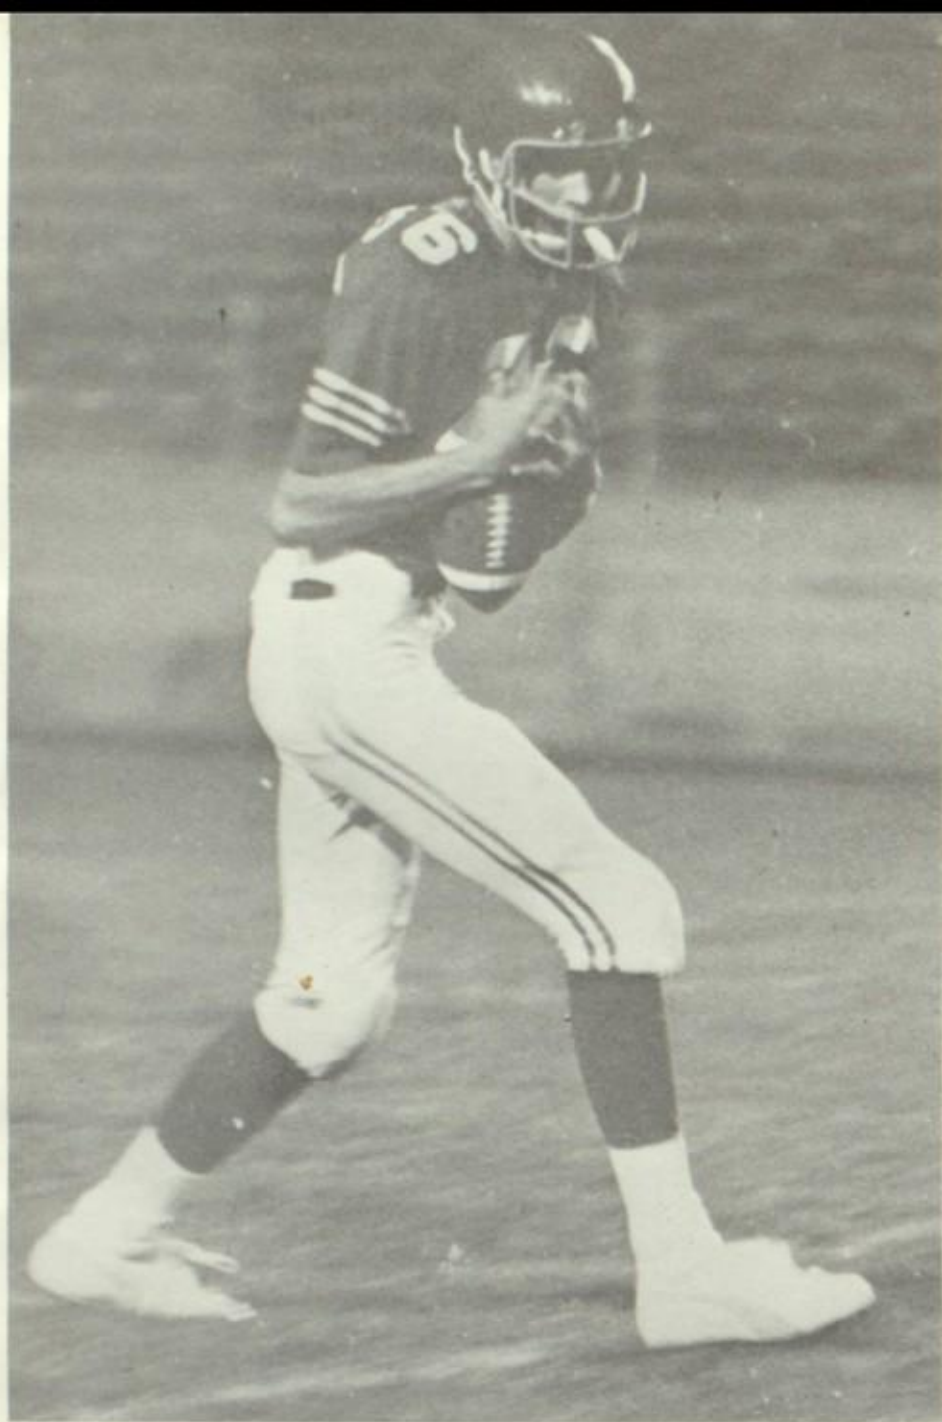

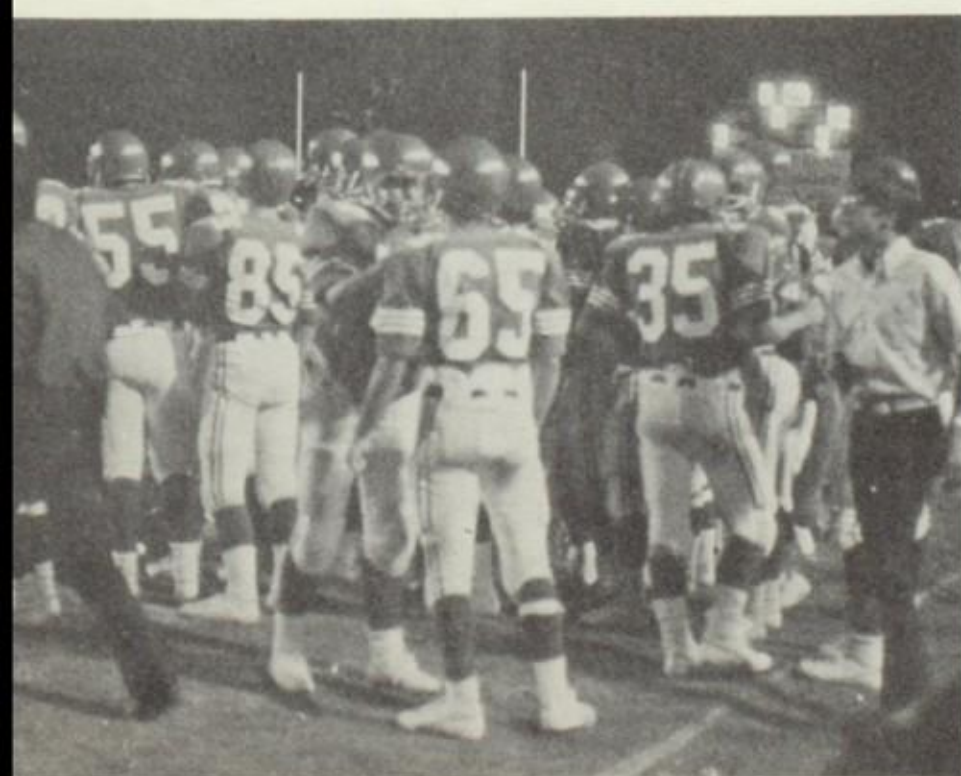

Our Year.

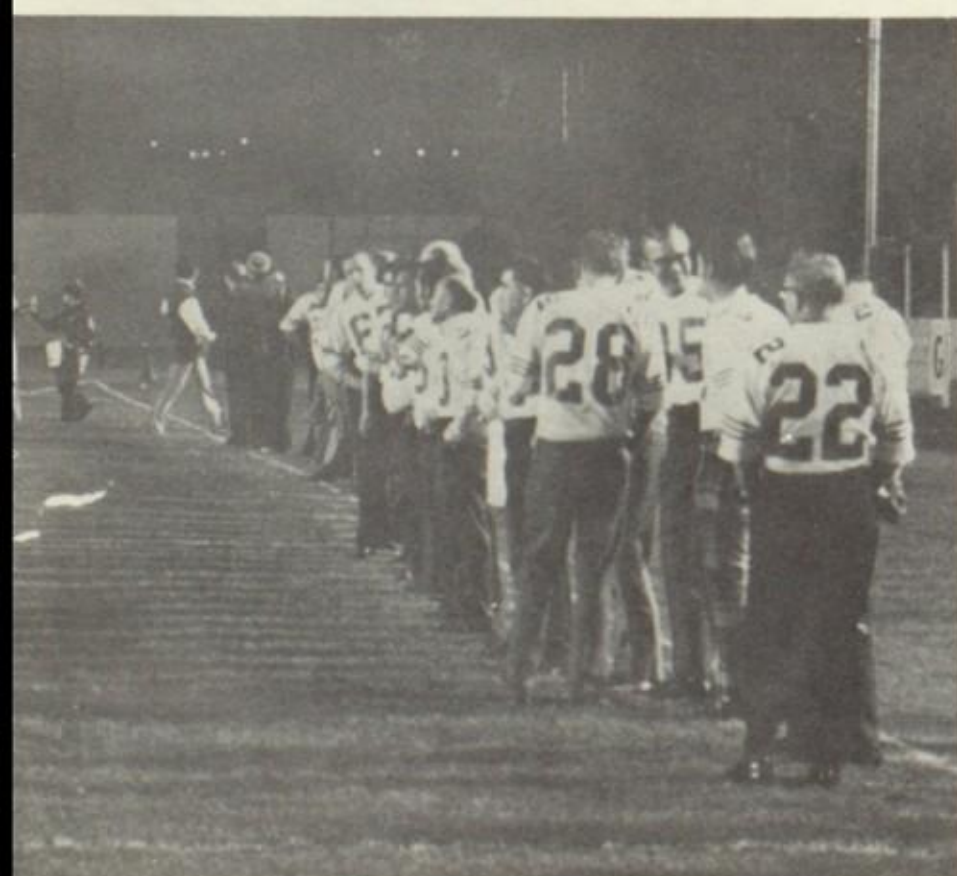

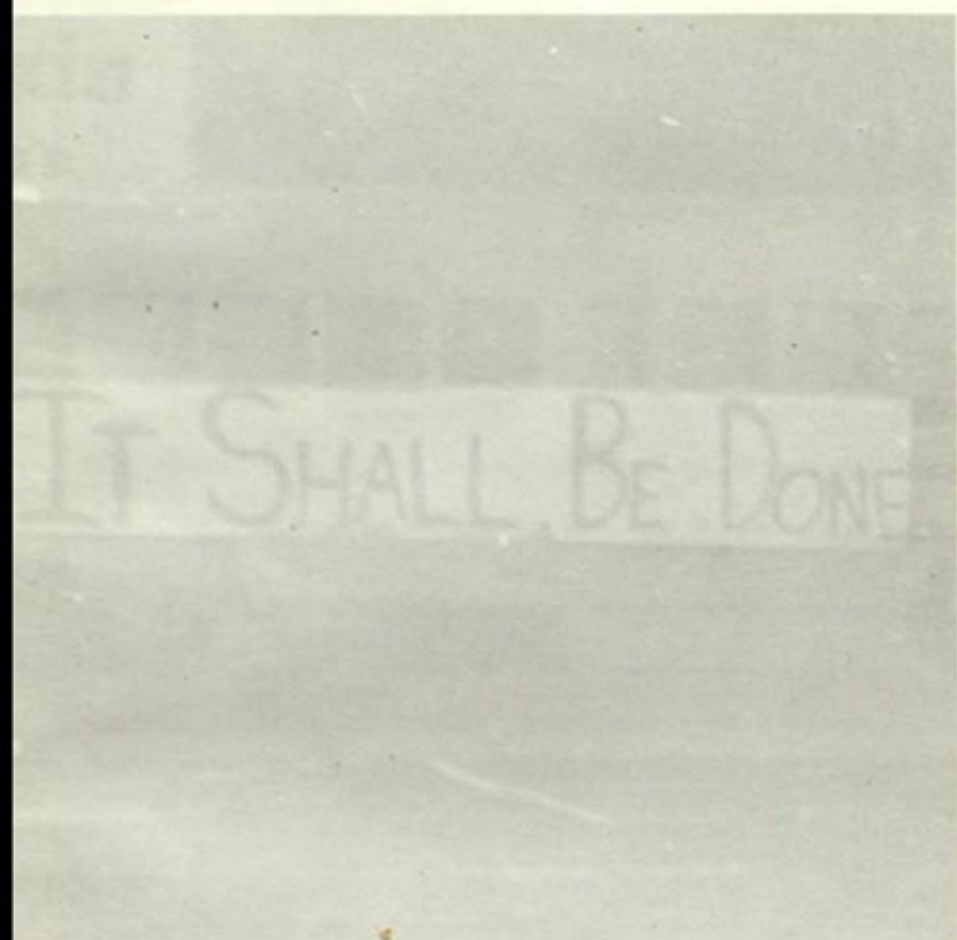

We COME TOGETHER . . . some for the first time, some come back as sophomores and juniors, and many for the last time.

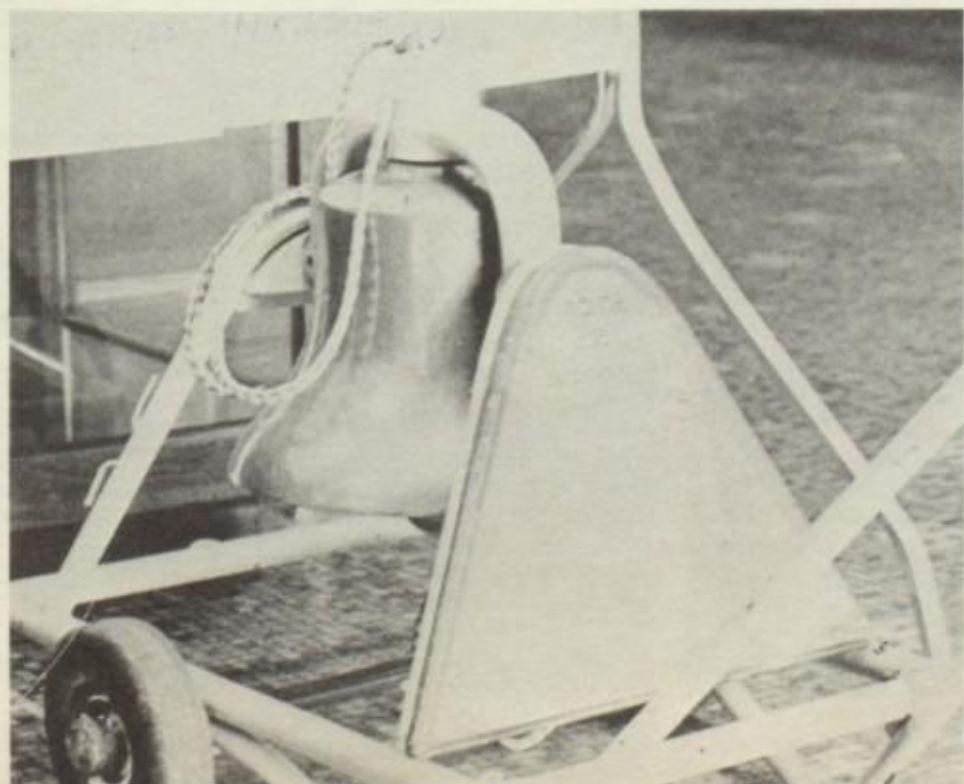

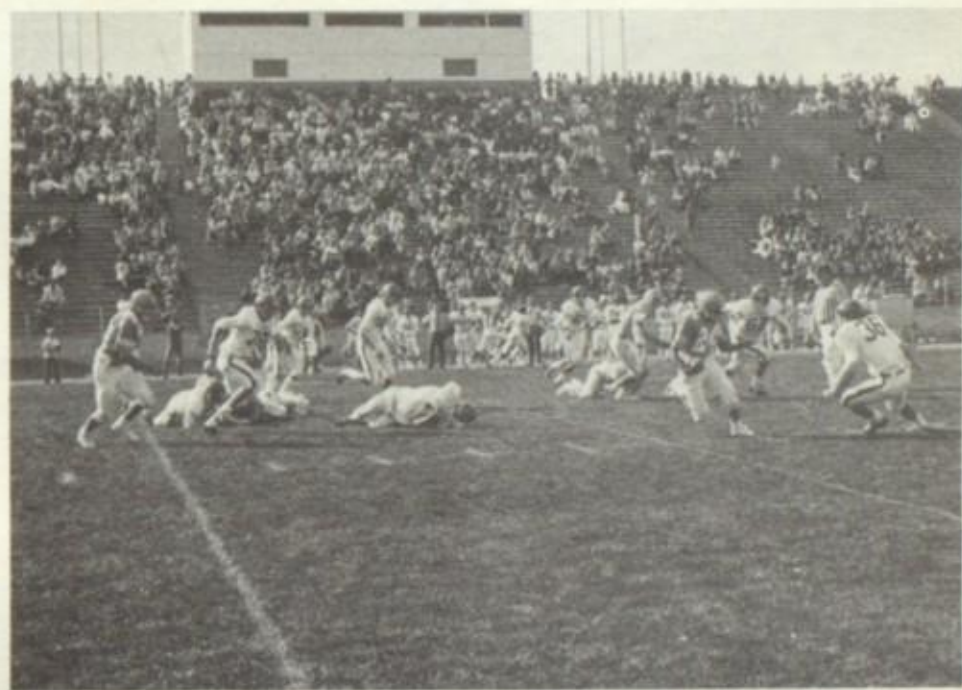

We start our year with great enthusiasm, great expectations and hope. Each step we take forward is a step toward the end. But as we approach our final days as Wildcats, we can stand tall and say, "IT HAS BEEN DONE."

1973

"The Tonk Chumps"

"My, how you've grown!"

"Where's the party?"

"What do we do now?"

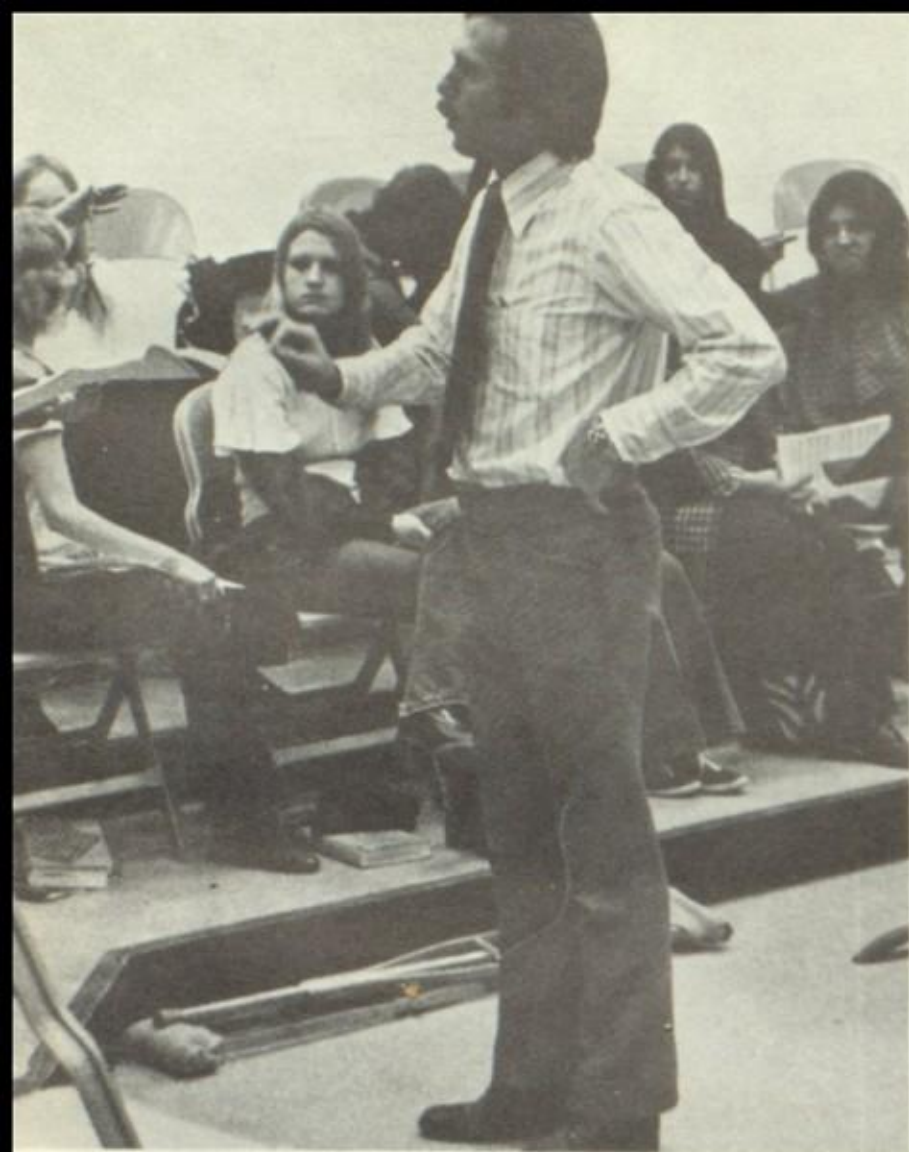

"Don't look now, but . . ."

"When do we start?"

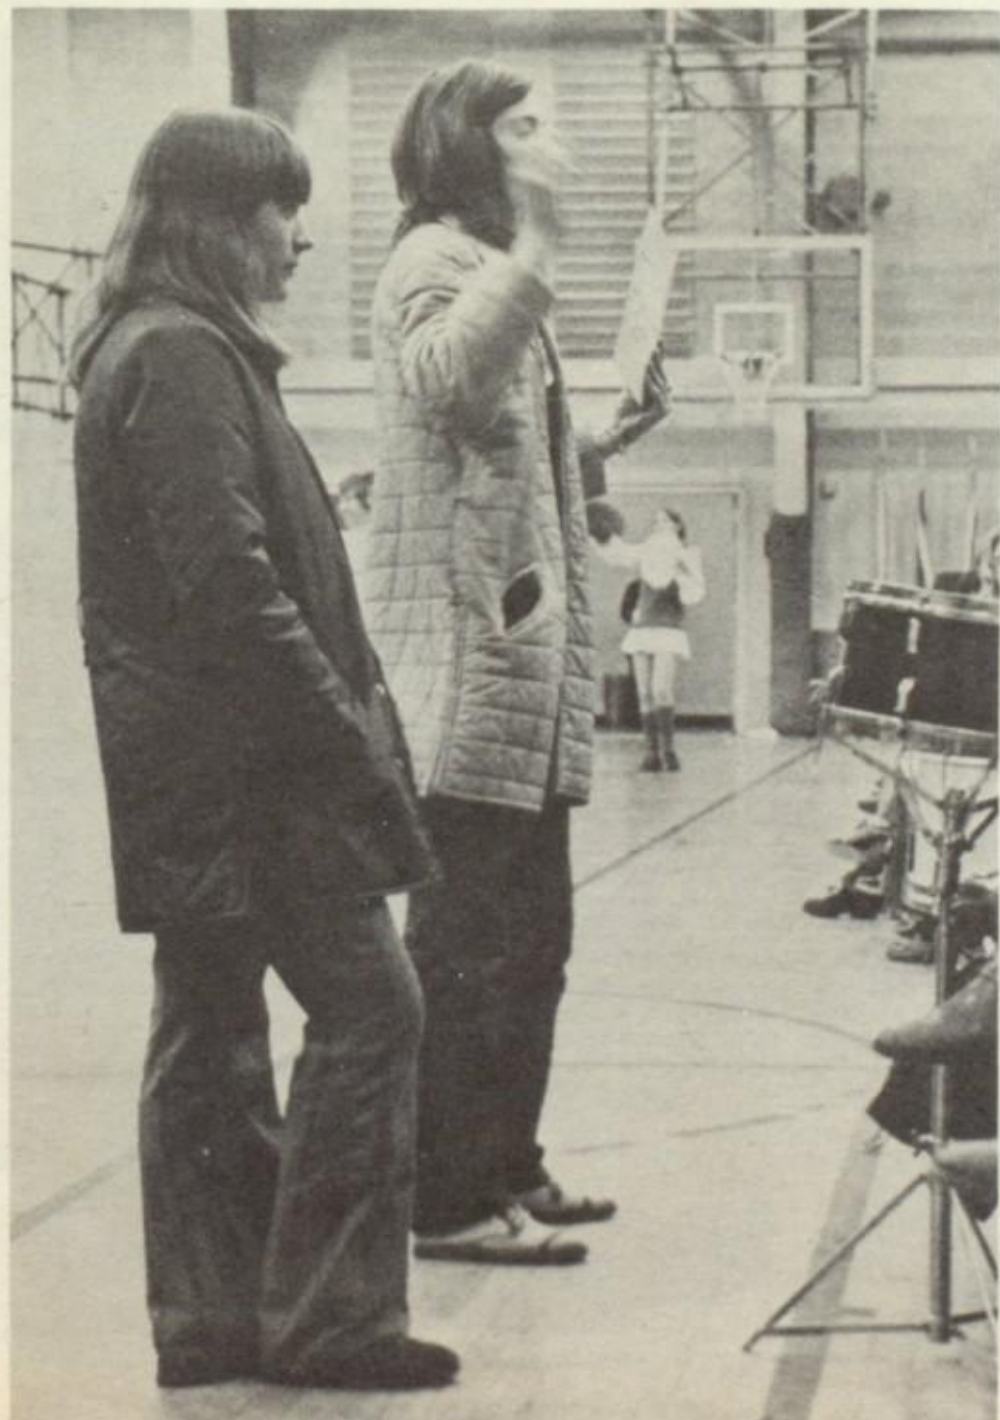

The halls are alive

with the sound of music.

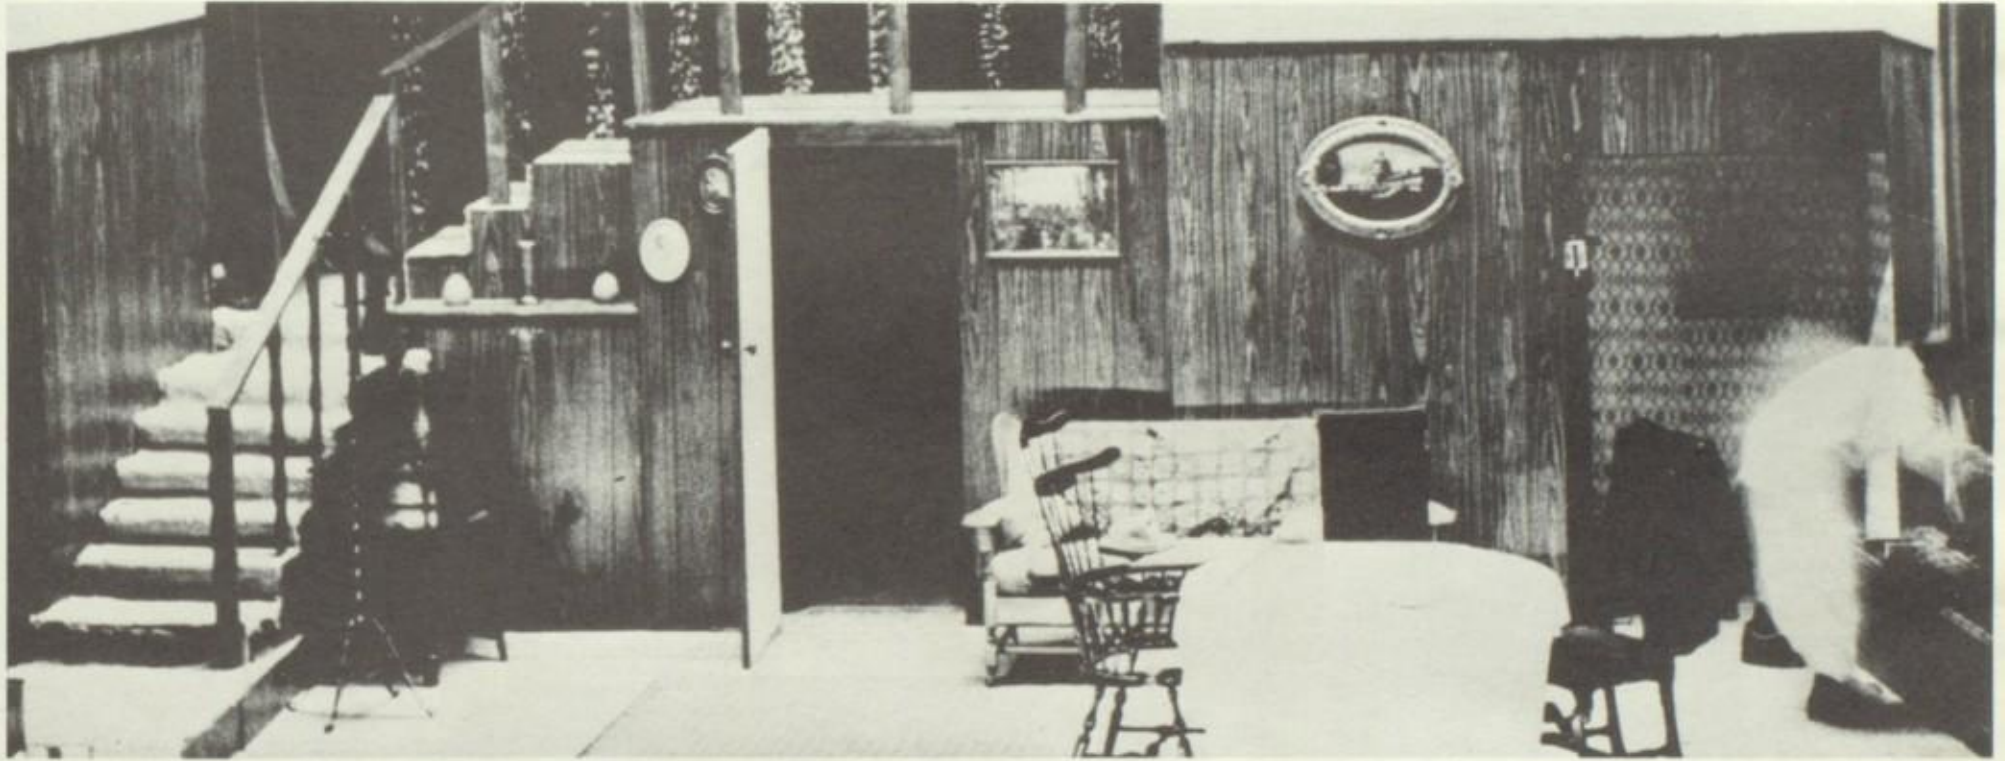

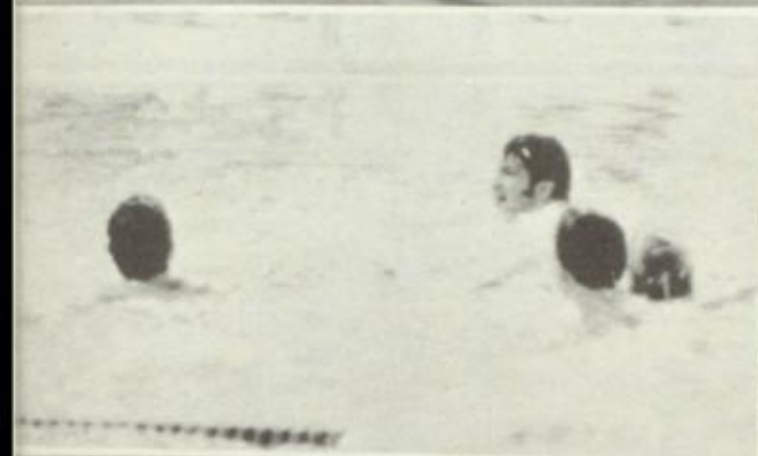

On the nights of November 30 and December 1, the Central Thespians presented their first play of the year, the comedy, "Arsenic and Old Lace." The audience roared with laughter at the antics of the actors and actresses who performed their parts with great ability.

At the end of the play, the audience rose to its feet in an ovation, applauding the fine work of Mrs. Mary Brasfield and the Drama Club.

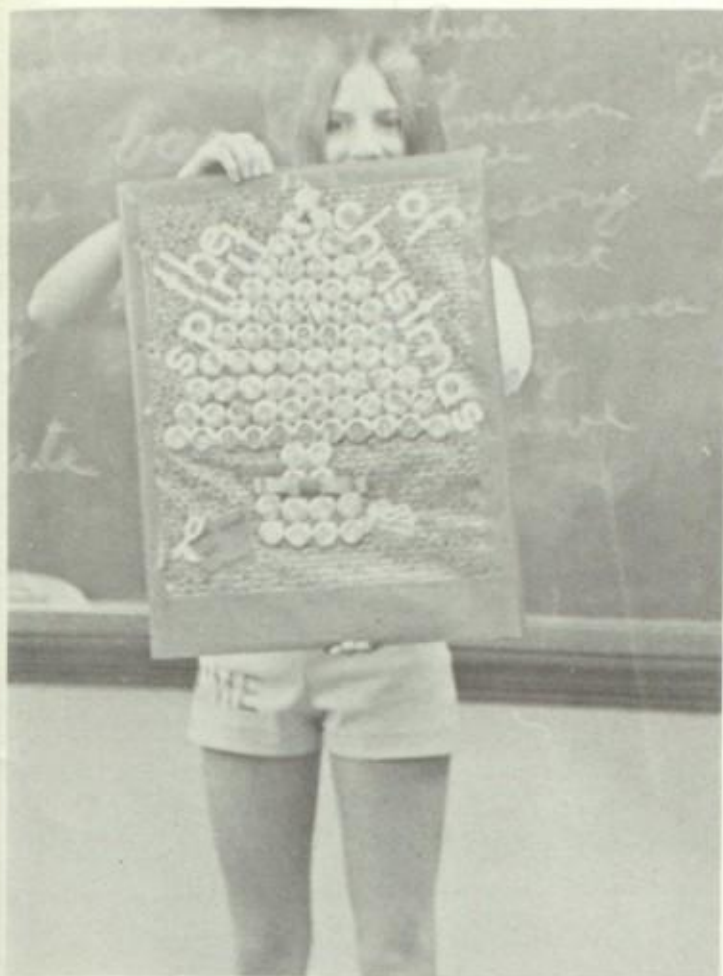

CHRISTMAS SEASON FINDS

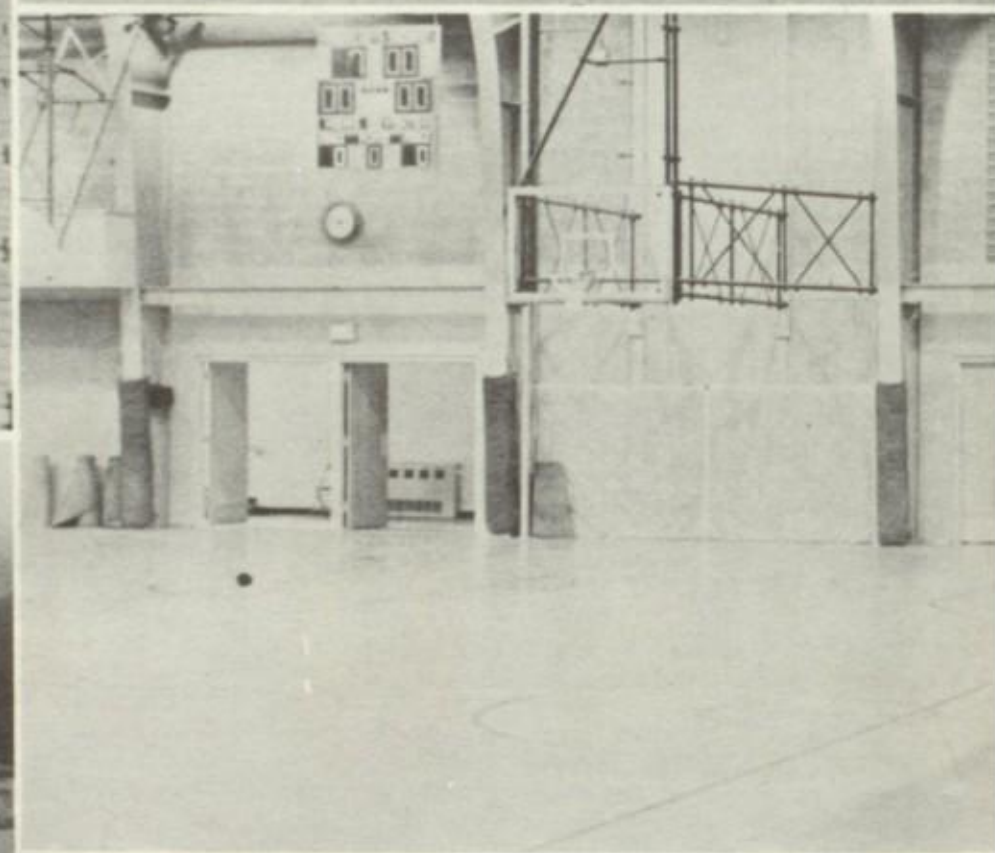

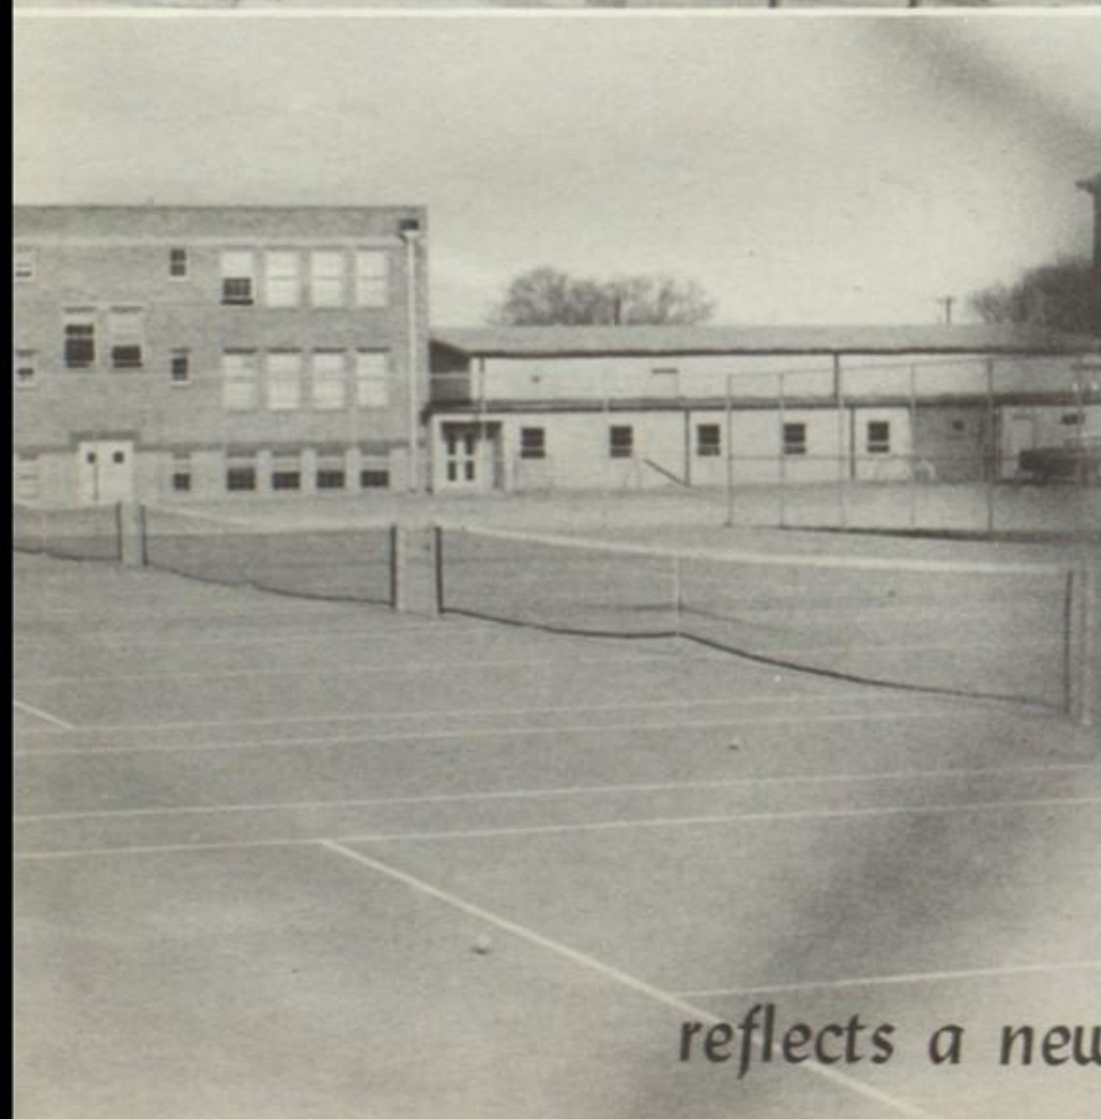

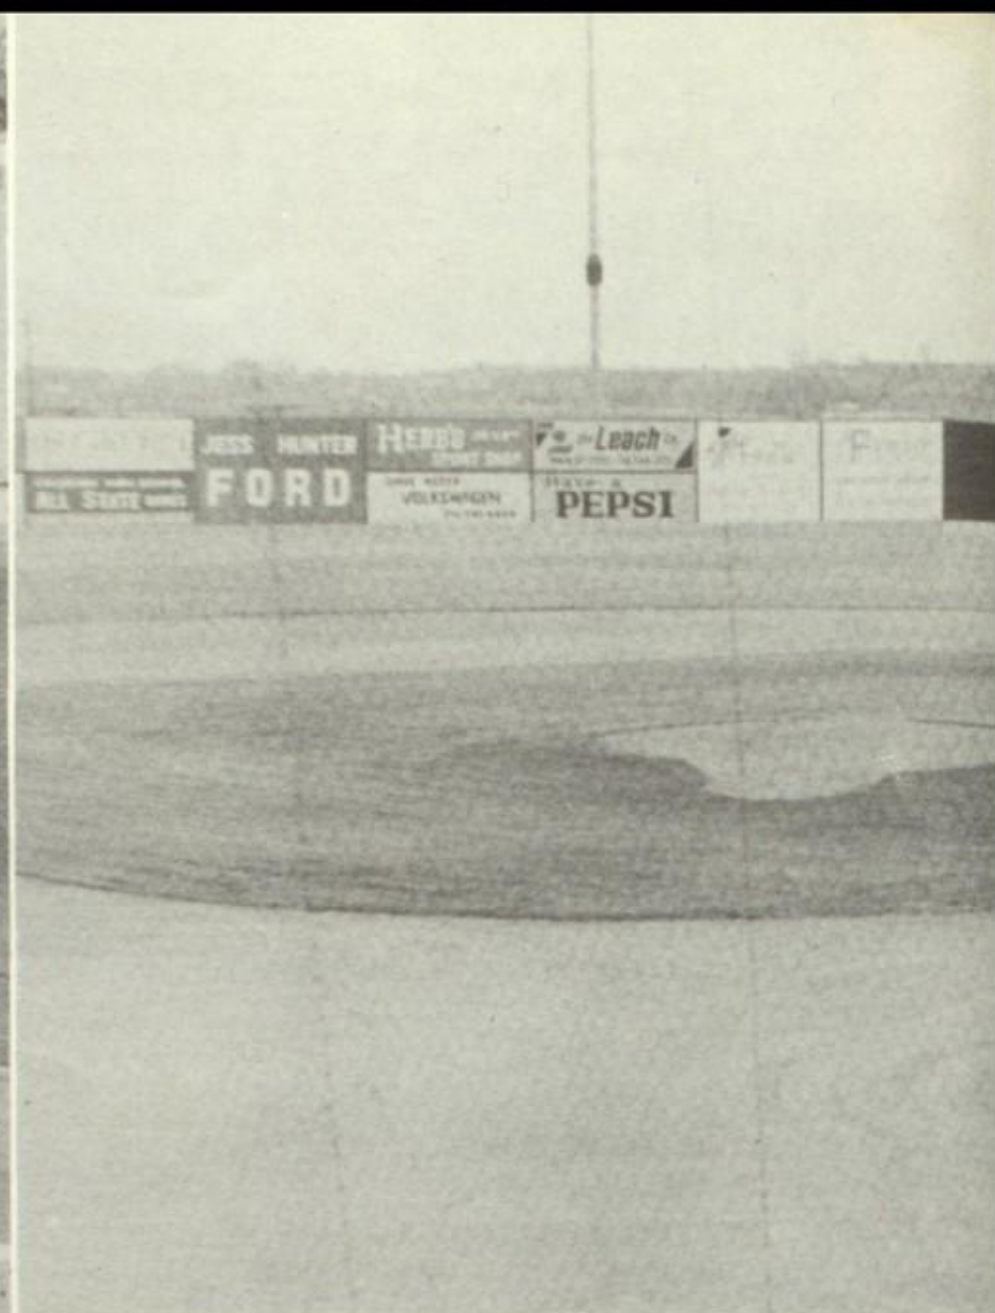

Under the planning of Student Council, halls for the 1972 Christmas season were filled with Christmas cheer and enthusiasm. Each year the Council buys trees for both main halls, holds the annual door decorating contest and spreads anticipation of the season through-out the school. This year's Council went one step further by providing Santa and his elves for the student body to enjoy.

STUDENT BODY ENTHUSIASTIC

Each end . . .

reflects a new beginning.

A Successful Past . . .

... A Bright New Future
